SLIGHT BLAZE.

At 1:10 o'clock, on Thursday morning, an alarm from box 34 called the department to the old bath house, corner of Broadway and Wilkinson streets, where a box of hot ashes on a back porch, had set fire to the side of the house. It was quickly extinguished with small loss. It seems some people will never learn that hot ashes will burn wood.

ETHICS OF EDUCATION.

Fourth Paper.

The steadily growing confidence of the most reliable portion of the great American people, in the progress of the States, towards affairs of education is not founded on the fluctuations of parties political, or the triumphs, periodical, of partisan platforms.

"The three radical issues, on whose decision hangs the future of this Republic, are: First, the limit of National obligation to educate American youth for American citizenship. Second, the corresponding obligation to legislate for the moral development of the people, as illustrate in the present movement for Congressional action concerning temperance, marriage, divorce, etc. Third, the attitude of the National Government towards the vast and involved demand for the readjustment of labor from the European to the American order of affairs, including the entire questions of tariff, currency and the claims of schemes socialistic."

Such momentous questions appeal daily to the teacher. Can he or she afford to ignore these questions of stupendous import, or plead ignorance in the main?

So we come to recognize in every child the possibility of a perfect man, and faith in God is innate in every man, every child; it has only to be awakened in the right way. But it must be awakened or it remains dead! Who shall arouse the possibilities of the child? And how early should the awakening begin? Such an understanding lies only in the hands of the mother and the kindergarten.

All the occupations have been archetypes of nature. Molding in clay begins the creative period. How gladly does the child approach the threshold of art, expressing other objects of perceptive faculties, in the beauty of the yielding nature of the clay, its indestructibility—revealing the inexorableness of law—truths opposite, but not contradictory.

In the balls finding the earth and stars, ideals of perfection, in form and motion. In the cylinder the growth of trees and animals, farther along the foundation of pottery and in the cube, the mineral kingdom, crystallization and architecture. The beautiful cubes of salt, octahedrons of alum, etc. Through the wonders of the microscope he can watch the snow flakes forming in geometrical progression.

Returning forever to one central point of endeavor we solve at last the truth of purpose as well as the aim and nature of life. What a grand thing it would be if, instead of spending so much money in building monuments, the modern philanthropist would imitate the envelope surprise given and opened during the Centennial, at Danvers, Mass., and find the same sentiment enclosed:

"Education—a debt due from the present to future generations," and also in the same envelope a check for $20, for an industrial school and training kindergarten. The Danvers, (Mass.), envelope was sent by George Peabody, and the money was used to found a library and institute.

Dr. Elliot said: "The purpose and aim of education is to turn sight into insight, to put candles inside the ordinary things that are seen. It is not the accumulation of facts, but the making facts to live that is education, and this does not happen until our wills are energized. This is that trained fertility of intellect that enables men to succeed in business, that nourishes patriotism."

There is no more productive force than a high intelligence! There is no possibility of fear setting aside the actual or of missing the ideal in the daily pursuit of knowledge. There is nothing that goes so directly to the child heart as a genial recognition springing up in the confidence of the teacher. The recognition is genuine, and a sympathetic link is thus established between two natures. Most of us do not appreciate the value or friendship of the children—but friendship cost so much more than a gift it costs something of ourselves "and the gift without the giver is bare!" N. S. COX.

October 17, 1904.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at all drug stores.

F. & C. CAR BROKEN INTO.

A freight car belonging to the F. & C. railroad, at the depot in Georgetown, was broken into on Tuesday night, and a case of shoes consigned to a Stamping Ground firm carried away. It was afterwards found in a vacant lot near the depot and the funny part of it was that the only shoes missing were not hats.

(For the Roundabout.)
IN MEMORIAM.

There is no one that dies whose death is not felt. Some more than others, and at this time the death of John Harvey Hamilton is felt by a host of people. A bad man is missed from a community, but when a good man like John Harvey is called away, there is a void, a place made empty, that is felt and which appeals to every heart.

And yet this is not the end. If we die with the holy, what are the sweet ties of wife, mother, sister, brother and friend? We should not think of our loved ones who go before us as being dead. John Harvey was a Christian and his life was only the beginning of that which follows death. He united with the Christian Church, at Bridgeport, 11 years ago and was always true to his belief. He was married to Ruth Sargent 11 years and 7 months ago and he at all times showed his devotion and love for her. He provided beautifully for her in every way and never did he deny her the smallest favor.

John Harvey was full of fun, always ready to give and take a joke, always a favorite of young men, and he had great respect for old age. He was not a man addicted to the many vices which are the cause of so much misery and suffering of some, but he attended to his own business soberly, working all the time with all his might, exerting all his powers and never shunning what he deemed his duty. His whole life was spent with a smile on his face and we know he was ushered into the presence of God smilingly. Truly his life is worthy of emulation and although it was short and we feel as if he was called too soon, let us how our hearts submissively say: "Thy will be done." W. E. P.

CRANE—In memory of Howard Franklin Crane, who died October 14, 1904, in his sixteenth year.

He had only been sick a short time and was under treatment of Dr. Taylor, a Lexington specialist. He did all that was in his power but the dear boy failed to receive relief. The death angel visited his home. He was a true Christian; an obedient child; a kind and affectionate brother, and is now on the sunny banks of "Sweet Deliverance," with his dear Savior. We should not grieve for the loss of this dear boy, for he was called home by Him who knoweth all things. The young and plucked, as well as old, to make up the shining wreath of eternal glory. Oh! what a consoling thought that, though he can not come back to us, we can go to him in the elysian fields of the paradise of God.

We miss thee from our home dear! We miss thee from thy place; a shadow o'er our life is cast; we miss the sunshine of thy face; we miss thy kind and willing hand, thy fond and earnest eye. Our home is dark without thee, we miss thee everywhere. SISTER.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks.

Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

A WARNING.

It is a well known fact that there are a lot of worthless men, both white and black, who are loafing about our streets night and day, but especially after the shadows of the night begin to fall, and who are capable of doing almost any deed of violence and outrage.

We wish, now, to give a word of friendly warning to the ladies, and especially to the young ladies of our city, not to be out after night-fall by themselves. By so doing they lay themselves liable to insult and outrage.

An instance in point. On Monday night, a prominent and lovely lady of the South Side was walking along a much-used thoroughfare, when she was accosted by a white man, who attempted to get her away from the well lighted portion of the street.

The lady, thoroughly frightened, ran into the house of a friend and thus escaped the scoundrel.

If ladies must be out at night, and it is often necessary, let them not go without other ladies or without gentlemen escorts.

The honor and chastity of one sweet, pure girl is worth a town full of such low-down, worthless scoundrels as are permitted to loaf about our streets.

We would urge upon our police to use greater vigilance in watching the conduct of the squads of loafers and deadbeats, who are constantly upon our streets, day and night. They are there for no good purpose, and should be made to "move out," whenever and wherever found and sent to the rock pile, if they will not go to work to earn an honest livelihood.

We would reiterate our warning, "ladies don't go on the streets alone after nightfall."

And to the scoundrels who seem to think they own the town we would say "Beware." Else a hemp-stretching entertainment may become of interest to you."

CUTTING SCRAPE.

On Saturday morning two men, by the name of Kendall and Mahoney, became engaged in a difficult fight in the store of Mr. Ford Jacobs, on St. Clair street, over family matters. In the course of which Mahoney cut Kendall several times with a pocket knife.

The injured man had his wounds, which were not very serious, dressed.

They were both placed under arrest and the trial set for Tuesday. When the time for the trial came on, Kendall had gone to his home, refusing to prosecute, and Mahoney was dismissed.

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.

Mental

Strain Affected General Health.

Doctor's Doses Weakened Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out with the cares and anxieties of the sick room. Read the following:
"I have always been healthy with the exception of a touch of rheumatism since my a. e. came on, up to the time of my husband's last illness some years ago. I assisted in nursing my husband for nearly three months when he departed this life and the mental strain I think caused my trouble. Aside from extreme nervousness my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which weakened me very much and my stomach for a time seemed inactive. Mental strain and the dormant condition of my stomach soon told upon my general health. I had little appetite and was soon forced to stay in bed a greater part of the time. Within a week after the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic I was up about the house. I continued their use until completely cured. My faith in Dr. Miles' Remedies has been strengthened by experience of other people, our daughter having used Restorative Nervine with splendid results in a case of para-lysis and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills cured of neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a large degree. I wish you continued success."
—MRS. FRANCES COFFMAN, Dayton, Va.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottles of Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Diseases. Address: Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DECLINED.

Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, has declined to accept the Bishopric, of the Louisville Diocese, Episcopal Church, to which he was elected some short time since.

MILAM REEL WINS MEDAL.

Among the awards in the Fisheries Exhibit, at the World's Fair, the celebrated fishing reel, manu- factured by Messrs. B. C. Milam & S. n. of this city, was awarded the gold medal.

THE DROUTH.

The drouth has become very serious all through this region. Stock water is very scarce, and water for family use is becoming so. The sown grain is also needing rain to cause it to germinate and attain proper growth before the winter weather sets in.

BIG SENSATION.

There was a big sensation in Evansville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. Try this perfect remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

SELLS FARM.

Mr. Thos. Black has sold his farm near Evergreen Baptist Church, to a Lexington gentleman, for $1,800 cash. About a year ago Mr. Black purchased this place for $1,000 cash, and $200 worth of loaned notes off of it, raised a crop and now sells it at the above figure. Pretty good year's work.

IMPROVED SIDEWALKS.

We are glad to see that our citizens are hard at it putting down granite sidewalks all over the city. While these walks may be expensive at first, when properly put down, they will last a life time. Frankfort has more of this character of pavement than any city of its size in the State.

THREE STOOD OLD KENTUCKY.

Kentucky stands far up in the lead in the list of awards made to the exhibitors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, having a total of 186, divided as follows: Six grand prizes, thirty-five gold medals, fifty-three silver medals, seventy-two bronze medals. This record, too, is made in the face of the fact that there were only three Kentuckians on the juries of award.

(Written for the Roundabout.)
A BIT OF R. E.

"Your letter came, to-day, my friend,
After long years of doubt and pain;
'Twas like the sunshine after rain,
A broken friendship linked again;
A faith into the end!"
"No other face has touched my heart,
So said your word to heart of mine;
You loved me in the day's long day,
When joy was ours in summer time,
E're pride had made us part."
"Tis sad to know that you have gone,
To thine home and loved-er scene;
To think of you only as a dream,
Together with the 'might have been.'"
Beyond the night and storm,
"I envy the quietness and the rest,
In silent land beyond the sea;
I'm glad your message came to me,
After your death. Sweet memory
Will whisper, it is best.

"My friend of earlier, happier years,
I'll plant upon thy grave to-day,
A little sprig of rue and bay,
And keep them fresh for aye and
aye
Well watered by my tears."
—N. S. COX.

BUYS A FARM.

Our old time friend Mr. George Penn has purchased the farm, known as the old John Gault place, on the Owenton pike, at Knight's Bridge, from its present owner, Mr. John Spencer. This is a fine farm. The price paid was $6,000.

NOTABLE EXCEPTION.

A Well Known House Announces an Annual Custom.

It is very seldom that the buying public is presented with a chance to secure big bargains in seasonable merchandise, at the time of year when goods are needed. However, a notable exception to this general rule is made public with this issue of the Roundabout, and the attention of the readers is invited to the advertisement of Mr. L. Davis, the well known merchant. He announces a big out sale in everything in his house, beginning with next Monday morning, and continuing throughout the entire week, ending Monday, October 31st. This is an annual custom of this house and the trade can buy any goods, ladies' and children's cloaks, men's and boy's suits and overcoats and shoes at big bargains. Don't fail to read the "ad" on the fifth page, 7-11.

CAN YOU EAT?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christian, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

IN CASE OF ACCIDENT.

Accidents will happen. Mother strains her back lifting a sofa. Father is hurt in the shop. Children are forever falling and bruising themselves. There is no preventing these things, but their worst consequences are averted with Perry Davis' Painkiller. No other remedy approaches it for the relief of such stricken families. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

"THE MAN FROM MEXICO" AND THE HOWARD-DORSET CO.

"The Man From Mexico" tells with rollicking up-to-date humor, as fresh and blithesome as the breezes that blow, of the life and adventures of one Benjamin Fitzhew, a society club man of New York City, who, through a practical joke, placed upon him by his club friends is lodged in jail, and detained for thirty days. Fitzhew being a ready speaker and possessed of a "gift of gab" and the art of story telling, rapidly made himself popular with the warden at the jail. The scenes show the awakening of Fitzhew, after being out the previous night with the boys, and the eulging of the sheriff, the prison scene with Fitzhew as the unruly inmate, and the final act, his reception at his home. Mr. Howard will appear in the part of Fitzhew, and he will be assisted by Miss Flora Dorset, who will essay that of Mrs. Fitzhew, the wronged wife. It is needless to say that the house will be packed on that night, for the Howard-Dorset Company have established themselves as being the prime favorites of Frankfort.

WRITE THIS DOWN

In the book of memory: There is no such thing as a harmless cough. Every cough is a warning of a confidence that goes from bad to worse unless it is remedied right away. Ophioid-laden medicine is a delusion. Allen's Lung Balsam cures the worst of colds. It clears the bronchial passages, so that the lungs get plenty of air. Why not get a bottle to-day.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membrane lining the stomach.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 1e. At all druggists.

WORSER EVERY YEAR.

Plenty of Frankfort Readers Have the Same Experience.

Don't neglect an aching back. It will get worse every year.

Backache is really kidney ache. To cure the back you must cure the kidneys.

If you don't, other kidney ills follow.

Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease, A Frankfort citizen tells you how—the cure is easy.

Mrs. Mildred S. Betts, wife of C. M. Betts, carpenter, of 519 Short street, says: "My kidneys troubled me for some years off and on. I tried different remedies but without obtaining any permanent relief. The pain in my back was often very severe, especially at night, before retiring and in the morning when I would first get up. There was also a kidney weakness, distressing at all times. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, and noticed that the symptoms they cured were just like mine. Willing to try almost anything to get relief, I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. I took them as directed and soon noticed the difference in my condition. The sharp pains and the aching disappeared, and the other complaints were banished. Doan's Kidney Pills act like magic, and the relief they give is lasting."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ONE OF MANY.

H. A. Tisdale, of Summertown, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the Piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many, many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ring-worm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

STAMPING GROUND.

Dr. E. H. Black, now 85 years of age, and unusually vigorous for a man of his years, is visiting relatives here and attending the protracted meeting of the Baptist church. Dr. Black now resides in Louisville, with his daughter, Mrs. Jas. A. Hodges.

The protracted meeting, which is now in progress at the Baptist Church, is growing in interest. Up to this writing there have been seven additions to the church. Rev. G. W. Arzabrite, the singing evangelist, of Georgetown, is assisting Pastor Hill.

Squire J. S. Lindsey and Mr. Geo. E. Wilkerson are both on the sick list.

Mrs. Lida Adams and Miss Lizzie Sparks have gone to St. Louis to attend the World's Fair.

Mr. Lee Penn and Miss Jessie Hockensmith, of Peaks Mill, are guests of Mr. A. M. Duvall.

The long draft is still unbroken, and our farmers and others are compelled to haul water for man and beast.

Spring never known to fail before are running dry.

Farmers are feeding their stock already.

A LITTLE LOSS.

Of flesh and strength, little lacking, obstinate cough and a little pain in the chest may not mean galling consumption, but they are signs that prudence will not neglect. A few doses of Allen's Lung Balm cause a free discharge of mucus and so loosens the cough. It heals the inflamed air passages and all its beneficent work is accomplished without a grain of opium.

CLEVER FELLOW.

Mr. David Kirkpatrick, the capable and popular chef, is now employed at the Elks Cafe, where he requests his friends to call. He assures them that they will find all the delicacies of the season served in the best style. Dave is a clever young fellow and thoroughly understands his business.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruiises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 50c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by all druggists.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.
